ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.

Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand.

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL Treatment, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D.

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without Medicine, is, in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure him-electrically and at the least possible cast thereby self perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, 17 Lispenard street, New York City.

WASHINGTON SENTINEL

BEVERLEY TUCKER,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

FOR PRESIDENT: JAMES BUCHANAN;

OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Subject to the Decision of the National Con-

From the New York Herald of May 25. The Micaragua Mass Meeting-Speech of Padre Vijil, the Micaraguan Minister-Interesting Letter from Major Heiss. Upon the breaking up of the great meeting in the Park, on Friday night, the mass of people there present, as if moved by a common impulse, defiled into Broadway, and accompanied by Shelton's band, marched up that great thoroughfare to the Metropolitan Hotelthe present head quarters of the Nicaraguan Embassy. There must have been at least ten thousand men in the procession, and their calm, dignified and determined appearance gave evidence of the intensity of the public feeling upon the principles that they were collected together to advocate.

Arrived in front of the Metropolitan Hotel, the procession halted in one compact mass, filling the entire street in front of that great edifice. In a few moments Padre Vijil, the Nicaraguan Minister, accompanied by his secretary, appeared upon the balcony of the second story, and was introduced to the assembly by Appleton Oaksmith, esq. He was received with tremendous applause, in the midst of which the band struck up the air of "See the Conquering Hero Comes," while cheer after cheer succeeded one another in quick succes-

As soon as the excitement had a little subsided, the Padre, through the interpretation of Mr. Oaksmith, made a few brief remarks. He

That this unexpected demonstration of the citizens of New York to do honor to the humble representative of a struggling people had so affected him, added to his limited knowledge of the American language—for he would not say English language—that he could say but little; but he was glad of this opportunity to express to the citizens of this great republic, on behalf of the government which he had the honor to represent, the high appreciation in which they were held by his countrymen, not alone for the sympathy which had been manifested in their behalf by private individuals, but also for the recognition and counterpance. but also for the recognition and countenance which the United States as a nation had ex-tended towards them. That he himself was engaged in a sacred calling—one which leads mankind to a better and kinder appreciation of humanity, and brings him nearer to his God-his life was passed within the quiet precincts of the church, and many might think that it ill became him to engage in a manner discon nected with his profession in the political affairs of his country. But to such he would say that he came here on no common mission. There are duties which impel a man beyond the ordinary interests of Church and State, and such are now impeling him in the great errand which he has come here to perform. He had heard for thirty years the cannon of discordant factions booming through a land that God had intended for a paradise—he had seen the walls of his sacred edifice crumble beneath the burning shot, and its most holy sanctuary defiled to end; when his people had adopted a govern ment which would insure internal tranquility when brother was reconciled with brother, and father with son, the hand of aggression is raised against them by a neighboring State, who, with serviles in their ranks, and aided by one of the mightiest Powers of Christendom, is marching to invade their territory and make it once more the theatre of bloodshed and misrule. Could be remain within his cloistered cell and see such things without adding his mite to the effort for his country's good? Far from it. He must go forth like Peter the Hermit, of old, to preach a crusade in favor of his suffering country. And so he had come here to drink from the very fountains of liberty -to study our institutions, to learn our laws, so that when he returns to his own land he may go there enlightened and refreshed, to commence the regeneration of his people. He was here in a diplomatic capacity, and it would not become him to speak publicly of matters and for the greater cause of humaity-he thanked them. The Padre was listened to with profound attention, frequently interrupted by applause, and at the close of his remarks was greeted with most enthusiastic cheering, in the midst of which he retired from the balcony.

of policy between his government and our own. He trusted that the great cause of humanity which he urged would be in itself sufficient to shield him if he had departed from any of the established usages of diplomacy in thus addressing a public assembly; but his heart was full, and he must speak, and he would say that it was his firm conviction that the government of Nicaragua would always place highest in the great brotherhood of nations that fearless republic which was the first to extend to them the helping hand of recognition. He would not conceal from them that his country needed

aid; and he could see by this spontaneous manifestation of sympathy by the citizens of the greatest metropolis of this hemisphere, that he had but to ask that aid for his bleeding country to receive it with no niggard hand.

He would not trespass longer on their patience.

(Cheers, and cries of "Go on!" "go on!".)

This unexpected honor to his country was most grateful to his feelings. On behalf of that country—on behalf of President Rivas— on behalf of their gallant countryman, General

Walker, who was dear to every Nicaraguan,

Col. George B. Hall, Alderman Clancey, Captain Rynders, ex-Councilman Wild, Alex-ATER YEARS, by the Author of "the ander C. Lawrence, Esq., and others, were afterwards introduced to him in the ladies' parlor. The Padre received them with great courtesy and kindness, and was evidently deeply moved by the sympathy evinced for him and the cause which he advocates.

The procession was again formed, and marched down Broadway to the Astor House, where the band serenaded Governor Price, of New Jersey, who is a guest at that house. Three cheers were then given for liberty and Nicaragua, and the meeting, quietly dispersed.

The following important letter from Major Heiss was read Friday night at the meeting, but from the great space which the proceedings occupied in our columns it was unavoidably left out until to day. It is full of interesting facts concerning Nicaragua, and will be read with

BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILROAD

HAVING greatly improved its Western connections now offers the fullest inducements to travellers between Washington, Baltimore, and all portions of the West, the Northwest and the Southwest.

The connection between the trains from Washington and the trains bound west from Baltimore is always promptly made at the Washington Junction (lately called the Relay House) 9 miles from Baltimore. This is the only change of cars required between Washington and the Ohio river. Baggage is checked through to Wheeling at the Washington station, and rechecked and transferred there, (with the passengers) without charge, for those holding through tickets for points beyond. The connecting trains leave Washington daily at 6 a.m. and 4½ p. m. On Sundays at the latter hour only.

At Wheeling direct connection is made with the trains of the CENTRAL OHIO RAILROAD, run the state of the China and the China and the clark through Cambridge, Zanesville and Newark, to COLUMBUS. These trains connect at Newark with the cars of the Newark, Mansfeld and Sand, usky Railroad for Sandusky, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, etc.
At Columbus the C. O. Railroad trains connect with the fast trains of the Little Miami Railroad to Xenia, CINCINNATI, LOUISVILLE, etc. At Xenia (on Little Miami Railroad) connection is formed with the trains through Dayton, to INDI ANAPOLIS, Terre Haute, Lafayette, Chicago ANAPOLIS, Terre Haute, Lafayette, Chicaga Rock Island, St. Louis, etc.
